

Player Report on T. Fredricson

Season 2025/2026 Club Manchester United U21

Date of Report 20-07-2026 Position RCB / LCB Age 21 Foot Right Height n/a

Physique

Size is not confirmed, but he competes well in the air and rarely gets bullied off the ball. Reads as a composed, alert defender rather than a physical specimen.

Pace

Comfortable stepping out with the ball and carrying it forward, more mobile than a typical stopper.

Work-Rate

Very heavily involved in build up play. Constantly available to receive the ball and move it on. Defensive work looks tidy and controlled.

Attitude

Wins the large majority of his challenges and rarely fouls. Calm and composed rather than rash.

Technical

An outstanding passer for a young centre back. Comfortable in tight areas and moves the ball forward with real purpose rather than just playing it safe sideways.

Intelligence

Reads danger early and steps in to win the ball back cleanly. Looks comfortable dictating the tempo from the back.

Comments

A young English centre back who has barely featured for the first team so far, but what has been seen on video is genuinely promising. He is composed on the ball, wins it back cleanly, and looks capable of building attacks from deep rather than simply clearing his lines under pressure. Encouraging early signs from a very small number of matches watched, well worth continuing to track closely as more minutes come his way.

Strengths

- Outstanding passing range and composure for a young centre back
- Wins the large majority of his defensive challenges
- Disciplined, rarely fouls
- Comfortable carrying the ball forward out from the back

Weaknesses

- An extremely small number of matches watched so far, this is an early look rather than a settled picture
- Physical frame not yet confirmed
- Needs a longer run of matches before wider conclusions can be drawn

Overall rating: 6 / 10
